

metro parks

The Metropolitan Board of Parks and Recreation welcomes you to Centennial Park! While enjoying your visit and making plans to attend football, basketball and other sporting events at Vanderbilt University or a special event in the park, please remember that park policy prohibits:

1. Parking on the grass or in other restricted areas;
2. Parking which exceeds the TWO HOUR limit (except for special events in the park);
3. The removal of barricades;
4. The use of alcohol, drugs and any other illegal substance;
5. Loud music and other sound amplification;
6. Erection of tents or other shelters without a permit;
7. Open grilling, disposal of charcoal, etc., without a permit.

Violation of these policies will result in a fine and/or the towing of your vehicle. If you have questions, regarding the policies, please feel free to call us at (615) 862-8400. For game day parking information, call Vanderbilt University at The Metropolitan Board of Parks and Recreation welcomes you to Centennial Park! While enjoying your visit and making plans to attend football, basketball and other sporting events at Vanderbilt University or a special event in the park, please remember that park policy prohibits:

1. Parking on the grass or in other restricted areas;
2. Parking which exceeds the TWO HOUR limit (except for special events in the park);
3. The removal of barricades;
4. The use of alcohol, drugs and any other illegal substance;
5. Loud music and other sound amplification;
6. Erection of tents or other shelters without a permit;
7. Open grilling, disposal of charcoal, etc., without a permit.

Violation of these policies will result in a fine and/or the towing of your vehicle. If you have questions, regarding the policies, please feel free to call us at (615) 862-8400. For game day parking information, call Vanderbilt University at 322-8337.